

Contact Help Text Size

GamesTown2010

GamesTown2010

It starts with your story...

The countdown to the 2010 Winter Games has begun. We want to hear what your B.C. community is doing to get in the spirit. Tell us and the world how individuals, organizations in your community are making a difference in supporting sport, healthy living, sustainable development and of course, the Olympic Games spirit.

District of Logan Lake
 Ltr # 310
 File# 1470.01
 Received: APR 14 2009
 Action CA - Apr. 21

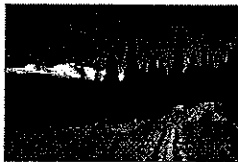

Recent Stories

Inukshuk
Princeton

Nordic challenges
Houston

Scenic Parksville
Parksville

...and finishes with cool winnings!

Later this year, three B.C. communities will be picked as the gold, silver and bronze GamesTowns and will receive funds to put towards sports or healthy living facility improvements of their choosing. Along the way, we'll also be awarding many other great prizes, including tickets to the Winter Games! Find your community and get started today!

Now it's your turn! Tell your story, the way you want.

Upload stories, photos and YouTube video clips to your own B.C. Community Profile page on the Gamestown2010 website, showing us how your community engages the Olympic spirit and should be named GamesTown2010.

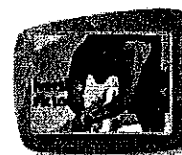

Put your community on the GamesTown2010 map!

Find Your Community

The Healthy Living Pledge.
It Counts Too!

Early Bird Prize Winners
Congratulations Houston!

It Counts Too! Once you've found your Community Profile Page, you can create an entry and make a healthy living pledge which enters you in the contest to win some amazing prizes, including tickets to the opening ceremonies of the 2010 Games! The number of community members having made a healthy living pledge will also be considered when awarding the GamesTown2010 grand prizes. Find Your Community

We're happy to announce that Houston, BC, home to the world's largest fly rod has picked up the first of our GamesTown 2010 early Bird Draw prizes, a visit by Olympian Ryan Cochrane. Ryan won Canada's only Olympic medal in the pool in Beijing, Bronze in the 1500m. Ryan's Bio and the Houston Event Details

GamesTown2010 Home Search Communities Email-A-Friend Prizes Contact Us Help World Challenge

GamesTown2010

GamesTown2010 > Logan Lake

Logan Lake

Thanks for visiting the Logan Lake page! Any content you see below has been submitted by GamesTown 2010 participants. Now it's time to add yours. Check back often for more stories – don't forget to bookmark this page. Remember, it can take up to 48 hours for a posting to appear.

Step up to the challenge. Create Your GamesTown2010.

Get those creative juices flowing and be the first to make an entry for Logan Lake. Whether a short story, a few pics or a video clip, the world wants to hear what your community is doing to get in the spirit!

Create an Entry Today

Go for the Gold!

Don't hold back. Every community taking part in GamesTown2010 is eligible to become the Gold Medal GamesTown2010 and bring home $100,000 to put towards sports and healthy living facilities. Silver and Bronze medal winners will take home $50,000 and $25,000 respectively. Along with the medals, many other great prizes are to be won.

A Pledge Worth Taking

If you're not ready to make a GamesTown entry, take the Healthy Living Pledge. Taking the pledge will also count towards your community's GamesTown ranking and allows you to enter very special Contest draws with prizes including tickets to the 2010 Games opening ceremonies. Take the Pledge!

